Arts & Events

Glasgow Mela

Kelvingrove Park, Sunday 26 June

This year, Glasgow's joyous multi-cultural festival of music, dance and arts will once again take over the west end's Kelvingrove Park with a full-day programme which is free and open to all. With the return of delicious food stalls and market vendors, there couldn't be a better way to start the summer holidays.

Merchant City Festival

Thursday 28 July to Sunday 31 July

A long weekend full of entertainment featuring sing-and-dance-along film screenings, BMX demonstrations, live music, and family theatre in partnership with Edinburgh International Children's Festival. More: www.merchantcityfestival.com

Human Threads exhibition

Tramway, until 28 August

This summer, the main gallery of our south side arts centre Tramway has been transformed into a gentle fairground. Human Threads invites visitors of all ages on a journey of light, sound, touch and smell, and features a huge silk sail, and a playful tower emitting light, smoke and bubbles.

Free entry Tuesdays to Sundays. More: www.tramway.org.uk

Kelvingrove Bandstand Open Week

Pack a picnic, grab a rug, and drop into some free family-friendly open days at the much-loved Kelvingrove Bandstand, including:

Kelvingrove Music Day, Saturday 2 July – A morning of kids' events followed by an afternoon of jazz in association with the Glasgow International Jazz Festival.

Open days, Monday 4 to Friday 8 July – Everyone is welcome to come and enjoy the venue between 11am and 3pm, with free live music and events between 12 noon and 2pm.

Expect a relaxed, informal vibe – no tickets required!

Libraries & Communities

Summer Reading Challenge

The Summer Reading Challenge returns to Glasgow Life Libraries from 25 June

Join the Gadgeteers this summer and discover more about the world of science and innovation! This year's science themed challenge encourages children to use their imagination and creativity and be inspired by the technology that surrounds them. You can take part by visiting your nearest Glasgow Life Library or you can take part online. Find your nearest library at www.glasgowlife.org.uk/libraries

Bookbug

Find your nearest Bookbug session at www.glasgowlife.org.uk

Bookbug sessions are free, fun, and friendly sessions for babies, toddlers, children under 5 and their parents/carers. Each session is relaxed, lasts around 30 minutes and includes songs, stories and rhymes.

Linn Park Adventure Playground

Linn Park Adventure Playground is an indoor and outdoor play centre for children up to twelve years of age with additional support needs and their families. Open throughout the summer holiday (Tuesday to Sunday) for ASN children and families.

Capacity is limited, therefore it is advisable to book up to 7 days in advance. Contact the centre on 0141 633 1493 to make a booking.

We've got a whole summer of fun lined up at Glasgow Libraries!

From weekly Bookbug sessions to the Summer Reading Challenge, why not discover a new way to enjoy books and reading this summer?

Sport

Tennis Camp

Glasgow Club Scotstoun

Our camps, led by our qualified tennis coaches are a great way for children to have fun, meet new friends and learn lots of new skills.

BMX Accreditation

Glasgow BMX Centre

If you're aged 8–15 and fancy getting on the BMX track to work towards your Accreditation (level 1 & 2) this free course is for you. You just need to be able to:

- Complete a lap of the track (flat ground) standing on the bike unaided
- Be able to stop under control
- Display "pedals level" where appropriate

Football: Player Development Camp

Emirates Arena, Toryglen Regional Football Centre & Glasgow Club Scotstoun

A week-long camp to have a taste of what it's like to train like a professional footballer. Activities include football fitness, dominating in your 1v1, tactical development, small-sided games, and player development reports.

Crash Course Swimming Lessons

These classes will introduce and develop further swimming skills. For full details visit glasgowlife.org.uk/summerfun

Disability Holiday Programme

Glasgow Club Maryhill, 11–15 July

Tollcross International Swimming Centre, 18–22 July

A fun and exciting way for children and young people aged 5–17yrs to try a variety of different sports. All sessions are delivered in partnership with Scottish Disability Sport, Glasgow Life and local clubs from across Glasgow.
